ABOUT THE COVER:

FOR AN ISSUE HIGHLIGHTING THE KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM AT PECK, it is only fitting that our current kindergarten students—the Class of 2031—create the artwork for the cover. With the beauty of their imaginations and creativity at hand, each student drew themselves as a “Peck student,” often enhancing their drawings with lions, hearts, Downy-Redhead images, and symbols of nature that shout happiness and joy. Every kindergartner is represented on this cover, symbolizing Peck’s commitment to an inclusive community—one for which everyone’s contributions are meaningful, and in which every one of us belongs.

The Peck School honors the simple joys of childhood—and provides a haven where your child can be a child just a little longer. This is a place where school culture still trumps pop culture, and where they can grow into their full potential without growing up too soon.
